Blackie's Champs . . .

Ending a jinx that hounded Southport's netmen for 16 years, Coach Carl (Blackie) Braden brought the Marion County Championship to S. H. S. for the first time since 1939.

Thursday night, January 20, Coach Braden took his hardwood boys to Butler and pulled what many called the biggest upset of the tourney by downing Pike Township, 67-42. Up to county tourney competition, Pike had more county victories to its credit than any other county team.

Since "Blackie" Braden had won the championship at Warren Central just one year earlier, this victory made him the first coach ever to win the Marion County Championship twice in a row at two different schools.

This year's team consisted of Joe Simpson, David Freers, George Marshall, Tom Bennett, Bob Wayman, Dick Buck, Jesse Blackwell, Wayne Perkins, Charles Garrison, Dick Simon, and Stanley Shimer.

Harry Thompson and his Fearless Fosdicks won the Intramural Basketball Championship this year and earned the right to play the All-Stars in a convocation before the student body. The game was held on senior "old-clothes day."

The sportsmanship award that goes each year to the boy showing the best sportsmanship during the season went to John Biggers.

Our County Captions . . .

Besides gaining permanent possession of the Ross Smith Traveling Trophy, out netmen regained possession of the Dope Box.

The Dope Box is always at stake whenever two county teams meet, and either one already has possession of it.

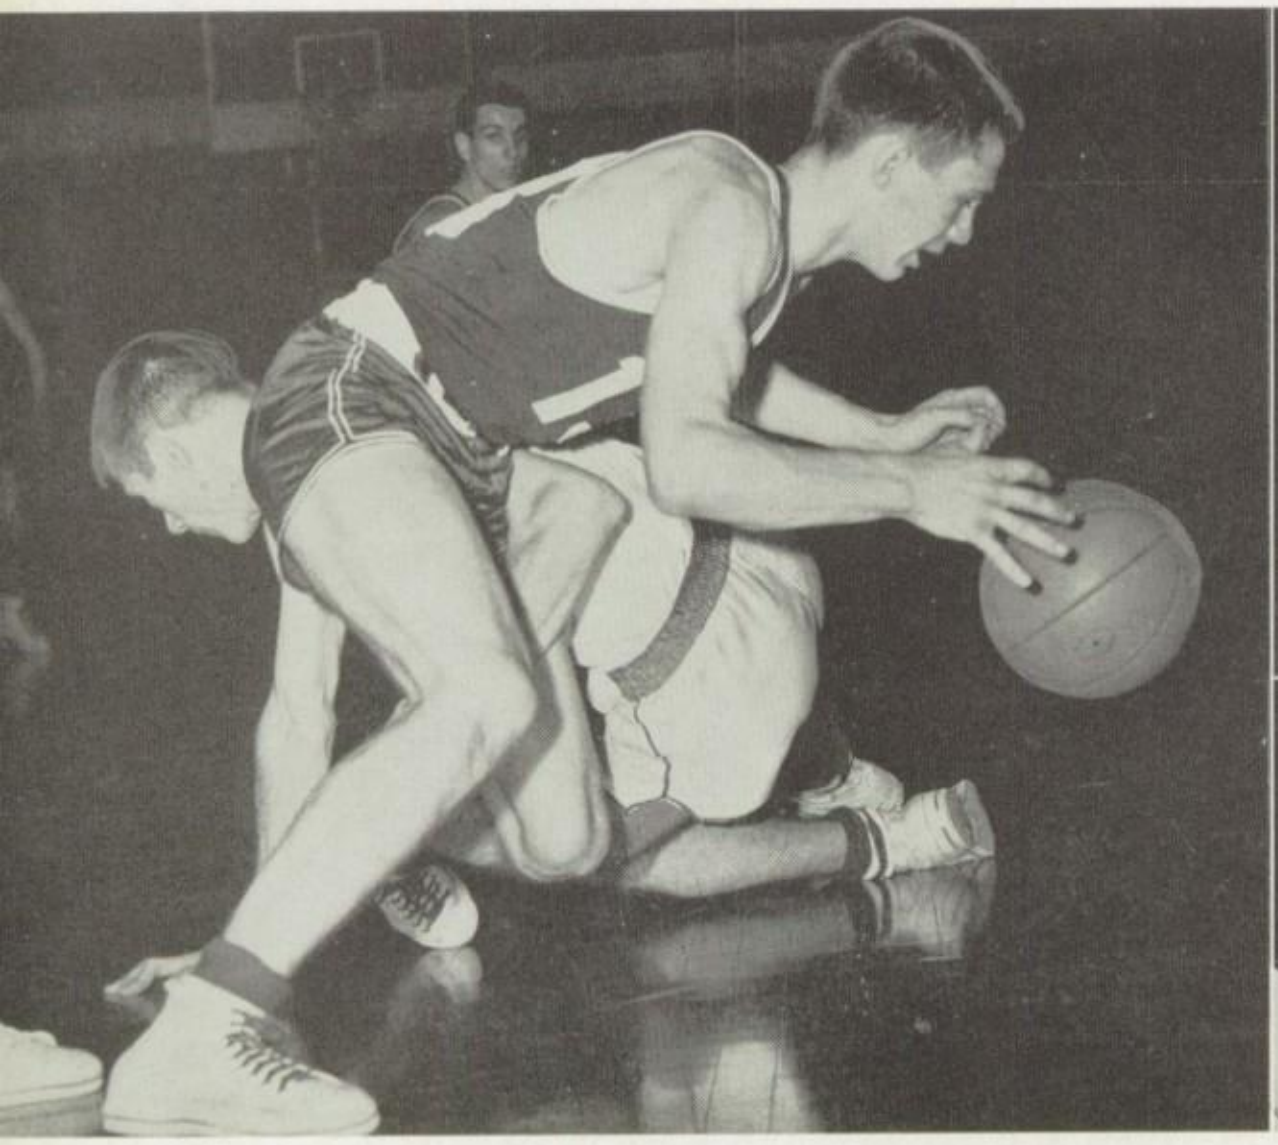
At the right holding the Dope Box is Tom Bennett. Tom was the "big-little man" who played an important part on our Championship team.



Net County Champs . . .

Following our victory over Ben Davis in the final game of the Marion County Tournament, a pep session was held at the high school. The heavens around Roosevelt Stadium were set aglow by a bonfire preceding the victory speeches made by Coach Carl Braden, Coach John Krivacs, and the members of the team.

In The Huddle . . .

Downing Shelbyville 27-13 in a winner-take-all game, the gridiron stars brought the South Central Conference Championship to S. H. S. for the second time in four years. Suffering but two defeats during the course of this season, this high-flying team racked up a successful record of seven wins and only two losses.

Coach Jack Morgan and his eleven iron men traveled to Ben Davis September 10, only to be set back by a stubborn west side rival. Although they lost 20-0, this game seemed to give the team enough of the losing taste. After this set-back, the Cards racked up 33 points before another team scored against them in a regularly scheduled game, and they won five straight games before their second and last defeat of the season to Cathedral's City Champs 20-12. These five straight wins came against Connersville, Warren Central, Franklin, Seymour, and Manual.

Fresh from their loss to Cathedral, the Cards were faced with another problem. They must down Columbus and Shelbyville in order to get the S. C. C. crown. Since Southport played but five conference games; they had to go undefeated in the conference in order to match the record being set by Shelbyville.

On October 20, the Bulldogs from Columbus came to Roosevelt Stadium and were sent home by an angry Southport squad, 27-13.

Then six days later our team faced Shelbyville in a do-or-die game. If Morgan's men didn't win this game, they would drop to third in conference standings. After an evenly matched first half, Coach Jack Morgan had a few words with his boys. In the second half it was all Southport as the Cards tromped Shelbyville 27-13 for the second conference title in football in four years.

This year we were also invited to play in the City Jamboree at Butler Bowl. During our 12 minutes of exhibition, Bob Cassady scored the first six-pointer of the season.

Coach Everett Swank led our baseball team to another South Central Conference Championship last season. This was the second consecutive year Coach Swank has performed this feat.

These diamond stars of S. H. S. achieved an overall record of twelve wins and six losses.

Besides winning the S. C. C. Championship, Coach Swank and his nine also were runners-up in the county tournament. Ben Davis beat them 6-2 in the final game May 11.

Defending State Champs . . .

Coach Chauncey McDaniel coached Southport High School to its second consecutive State Championship in wrestling this year by successfully placing two boys—Bob Herzog and Fred Redeker—in the final event.

Entering the finals at Bloomington, February 19, with eight men, McDaniel brought both Bob and Fred through with firsts. Bob went through the complete season without a defeat. He placed first in the county, first in the sectionals, and first in the state.

Fred Redeker also went through the complete season without defeat, although he was tied once. He placed first in county, first in the sectionals and first in the state.

Mac's men this year, as in two previous consecutive years, won the Marion County Tournament at Ben Davis. Elmer VanDeman, Bob Herzog, Dave Scherschel, Fred Redeker and Carl Stone were individual champions from S. H. S.

Fore . . .

Undefeated . . .

Bob Herzog and Fred Redeker were the only two boys from Southport able to survive all three matches on the final day of the State Wrestling Tournament; but along with the many seconds and thirds, Coach McDaniel was able to put his team in front for the second consecutive year.

Cinder Stars . . .

Delbert Willsey ended a successful season at S. H. S. by proving himself good enough for the state finals in track. During his last season Delbert competed in the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, broad jump and relays.

At Shelbyville, during the South Central Conference track meet, Delbert tied the all time record in the 100 yard dash of 10.1 seconds. This was a frequent happening witnessed by Southportites when Delbert was running.

Pole vaulting proved itself good and bad luck for David Freers during the '54 season. Although Dave won many firsts during the season, near the end he broke his arm and was unable to compete in the sectionals. His average height for the pole vault was 10 feet.

Track Drills . . .

Strict training and long practice are essential for any high school athlete, and this rule goes heavy for Southport's track team.

Competing in the world's largest indoor high track meet, the Hoosier Relays at Bloomington, Southport's cinder stars successfully opened their 1954 campaign in track as they won their section in the meet over five other teams.

The meet was divided into 15 sections with six teams in each section. The two-mile relay was the turning point that enabled S. H. S. to win their section. This relay team was made up of Byron Stitzer, Bill Hohlt, Fred Kottkamp, and Barteld Vredeveld.

Coached by Jack Morgan and William Fredenberger, this team won only one other track meet the rest of the year, but lost several by only a matter of a few points. The win came over Noblesville.

The cindermen that made up the team were Byron Stitzer, Eddie Davis, Jim Marshall, David Need, Bill Case, Delbert Willsey, Mike Gillispie, Bill Hohlt, Carl Stone, Arthur Key, Tom Bennett, Barteld Vredeveld, Fred Kottkamp, and Charles Hoffmeyer.

They Will Just Fade Away . . .

The annual Sweater Swirl, given each year to honor the football players, crowned Carole Doty and Fred Cipriani, seniors, "Champs" of the dance. Others in the court were Margie Coombs and Dick Fox, sophomores, and Fred Fisher and Beverly Boggs, juniors.

Victorious Moments - - Trophies . . .

Achievements like these are the results of long hours of practice, training, drill study and planning.

Coaching means many extra hours of work as these coaches maintain a teaching schedule throughout the day. Then at 2:50 they don their coaching togs and drill the boys so that they may bring home these awards.

Our High Steppers . . .

The S. H. S. Majorettes made their first appearance at the opening football game during the first week of school and put on a marching show which stressed precision and military drill as well as music at all home football and basketball games.

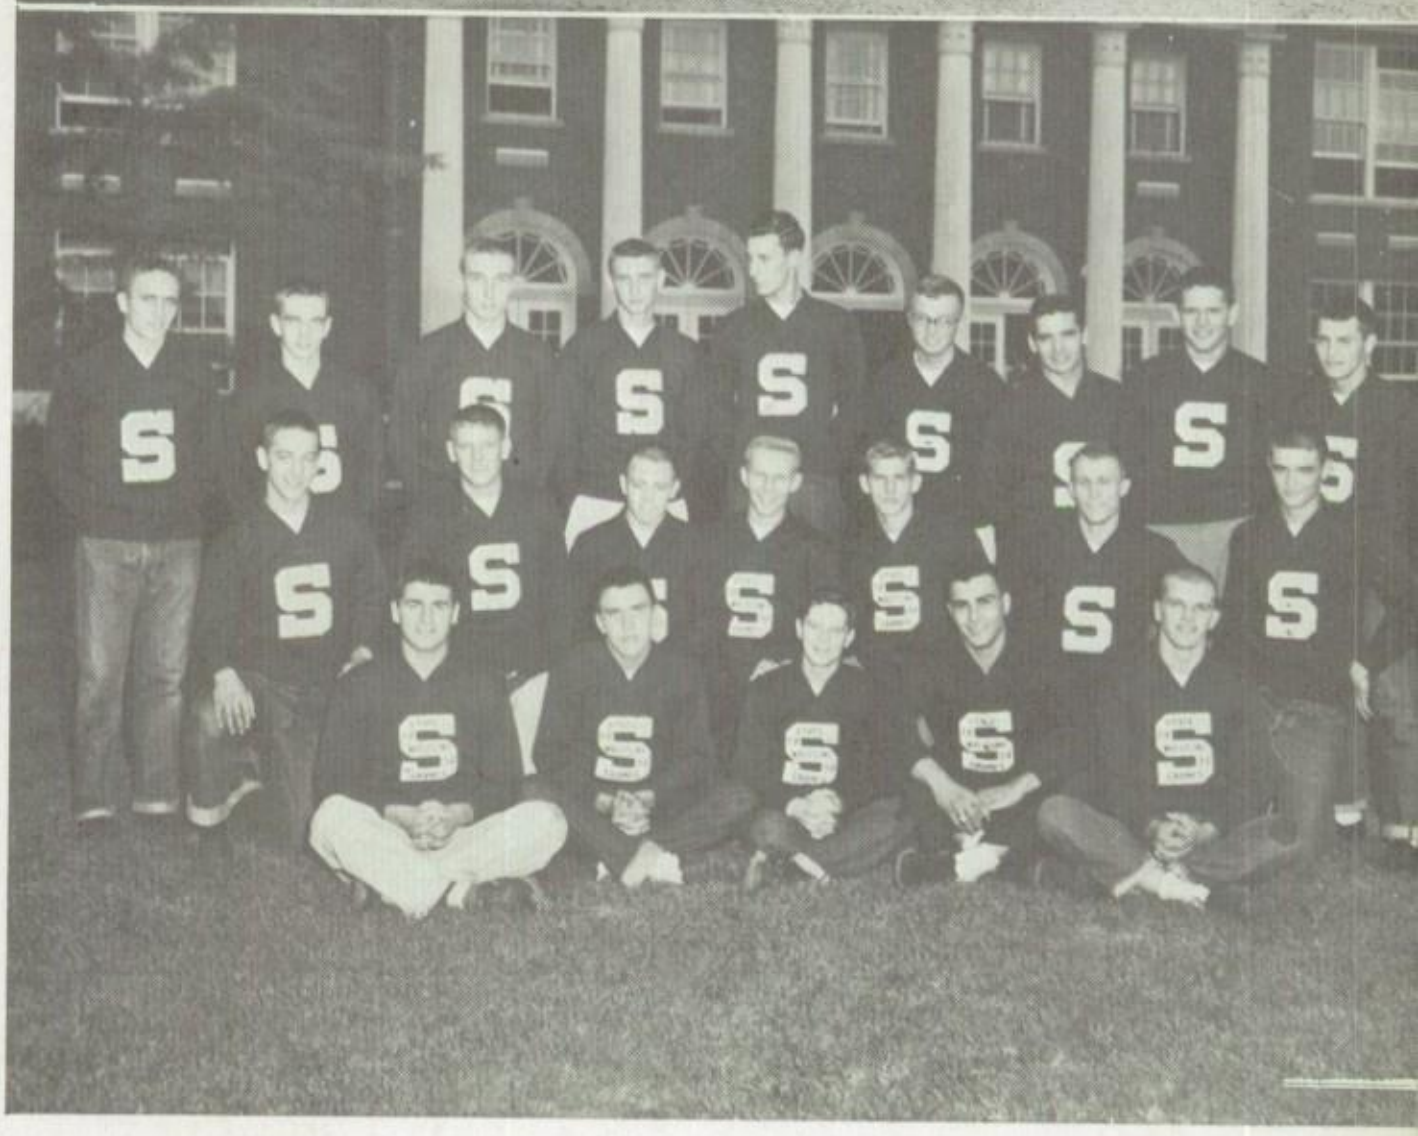
Yea, Rah!

Remember those winning teams and how we yelled them to victory? Leading us in our yells were Jack Ernsting, Linda Ulrey, Peggy and Nancy Brown, and Bill Miller, our energetic yell leaders.

Lettermen's Club

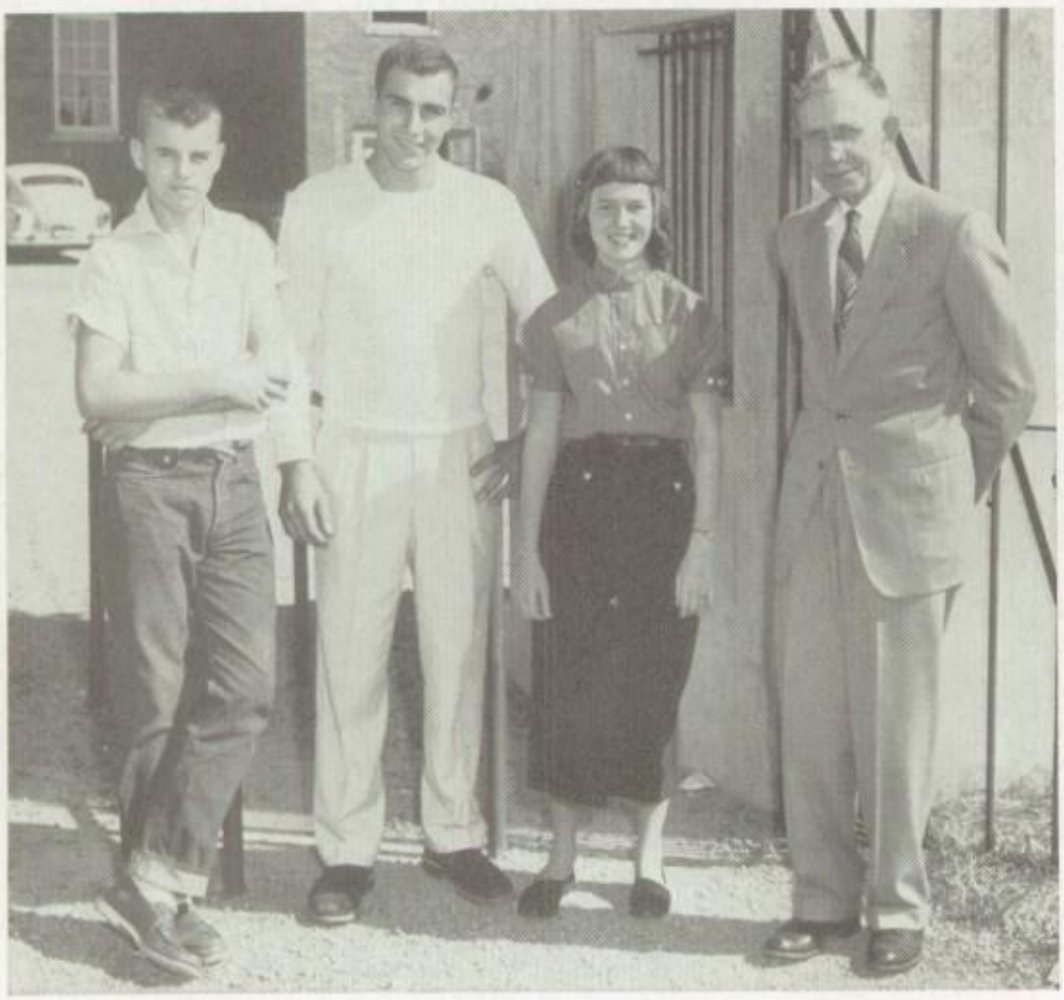
Achieving a letter sweater is the goal of every athlete. Promoting and raising the standards of athletics is the purpose of this organization. Directed by captain, Fred Redeker, the lettermen handled the job of seating fans at all home basketball games.



Our Cheering Sections . . .

Si! Si! Si! Trocadero!!

White gloves . . . . white blouses . . . . flashlights . . . . the mad scramble of placing cards in their right places. . . . These are just a few of many articles necessary for the Pep Club members. Organized for the purpose of forming a louder and better cheering section, the Pep Club was led by our never-tiring cheer leaders and Mr. Walter Kellam.



Fight, Fight, Fight, We Want To Win Tonight . . .

This was our loudest pep song at the County Tourney.

Our Booster Club, under the leadership of Charles Gerdt, who was president, did much to back our newly-formed Pep Club. Assisting Charles in the numerous duties were Carl Stone, vice-president, and Eva Morgan, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Walter Kellam was sponsor.

Junior Red Cross

Under the guidance of Mrs. Virginia Yeager, the Junior Red Cross made a party box which was given to the Central Hospital. Their other projects were working at the Chapter House, putting up posters, and promoting the Fund Campaign. Deanna Dorrah and Albert Rosebrock were County representatives. Directing the club were Ann Hasz, president, and Peggy Kritsch, secretary.

Intramural Volley Ball

On the feminine side of Southport sports picture is intramural volleyball. G. A. A. members made up the teams while captains were chosen from the advanced gym class. Winning team and captains received medals.

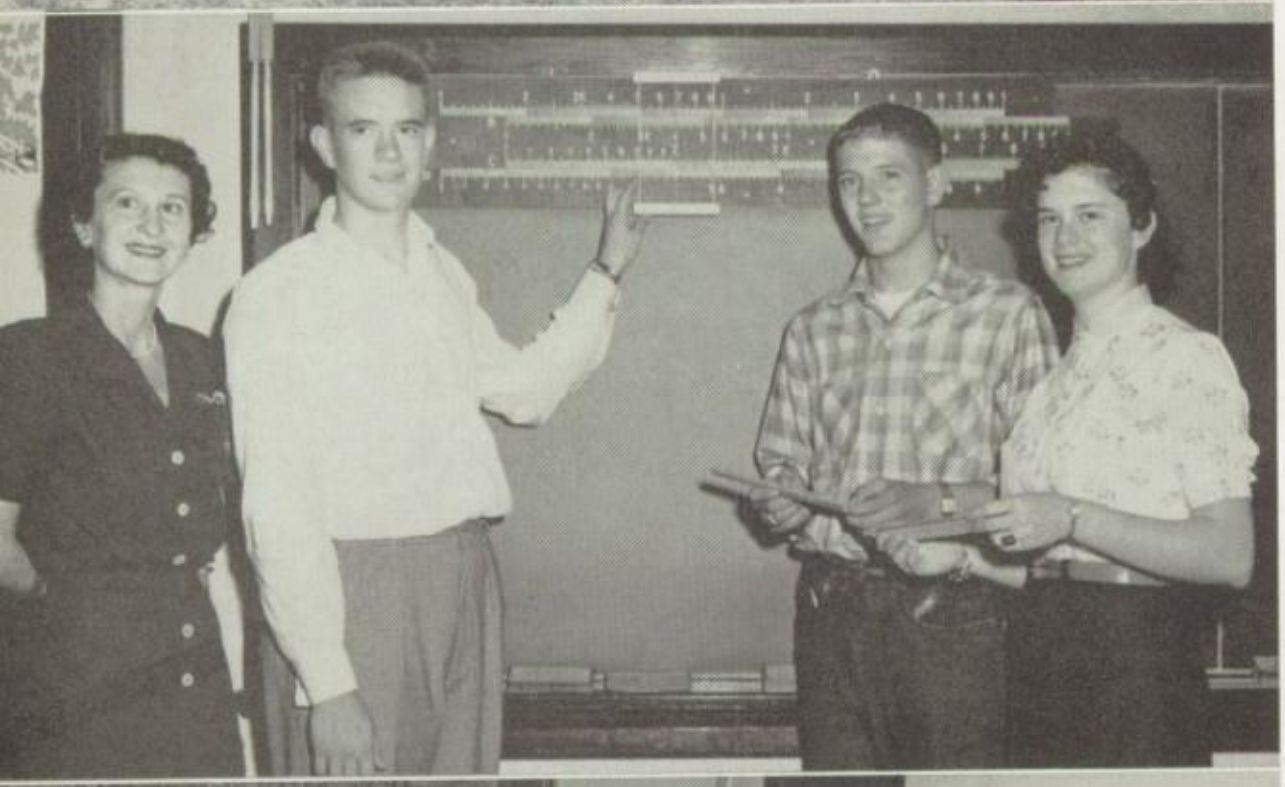
In this year's program two hundred girls took part. Many thanks go to club sponsor, Mrs. Lucille Miller. This year's captains were Elaine Nissley, Kay Fitzwater Catherine Bodenreider, Billie Beeson, Marjorie Biggers, Katy Gatto, Jo Ann Wilson, Sondra Austin, Ellen Baird, Janet Aping, Beverly Greenwood, Mildred Sturm, Eva Morgan, Nancy Miller, and Susan Wolforth.

Roll Is Taken Before Action Begins!

These girls will see many forms of exercise and play before the year is over. Volleyball is just a phase of the program directed by Mrs. Lucille Miller. Tumbling, various exercises, soft-ball, out-door games, kickball, dodgeball all fit into this well-rounded program.

Future Farmers Of America

Always working. . . . Yes, those are the members of F. F. A., learning how to make good farms better. New officers were Don LeMasters, president; Cecil Whitaker, vice-president; Tom Bodenreider, secretary; John Gruner, treasurer; Bob Caughey, sentinel; and Albert Rosebrock, reporter. Outgoing officers were Dave Bollinger, president; Bill Hiatt, vice-president; John Biggers, secretary; Bill Gruner, treasurer; Don Scharlau, sentinel; and Charles Gerdt, reporter. Mr. Earl McCormick sponsored the club in all its activities.



Advanced Math Club

To gain a greater knowledge of math is the goal of the Advanced Math Club. During the meetings, puzzles and math short-cuts are given by different members of the club. The feminine side of the club also has a figure to face. The girls are out-numbered seventeen to one!

To enter the club either a test must be passed or a theme written. Guiding the club this year were Gary Ahlbrand, president; Bill Hohlt, vice-president; and Sharon Ogle, secretary-treasurer. The Euclideans are led by Mrs. Eleanor Guyer.

Beginning Math Club

Circles. . . . M-m-m . . . . is this the right angle? These thoughts often run through the minds of the Beginning Math Club members. Joe Osborne was elected president. Assisting him were Morris Hancock, vice-president and Jesse Blackwell, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Everett Swank sponsored the group.

First In The State

Eddy Penn, a sophomore of Southport High, brought a distinct honor to our school the past year. He entered the District Solo Contest at Broad Ripple, and received a first rating. After the district, he went to the State Solo Contest at Butler, and captured first rating. He received both of these awards by playing the "Brahms Rhapsody No. 1 Op. 79."

Eddy, now fifteen, has studied piano for the past eight years and is a pupil of Dorothy Munger.

Next year, he will be the accompanist for the vocal classes.

Baccalaureate . . . . . May 29

Cardinalaires

An ensemble composed of four girls and four boys is like a tradition at Southport. Their singing has gladdened the hearts of many.

The participants are Linda Ulrey, Wayne Perkins, Sylvia Barth, Jerry Hogue, Nancy White, Tom Lewellyn, Margaret Knight, and Dennis Wisdom with Loretta Coomer, accompanist.

Each day during the sixth period a passer-by would hear the Southport High School String Ensemble rehearsing on the stage. The organization's job is to furnish music for many events. One of the main projects of the year was to provide music for intermissions during the senior play. This past year the string ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Ivan Warble, played for a tea given in Block's Auditorium for the Future Teachers of America. In addition to the events mentioned above, the string ensemble also performed on a television show which was broadcast from WISH-TV Indianapolis. It was by their arrangement that the Evansville All-City High School Orchestra presented a convocation for the school.

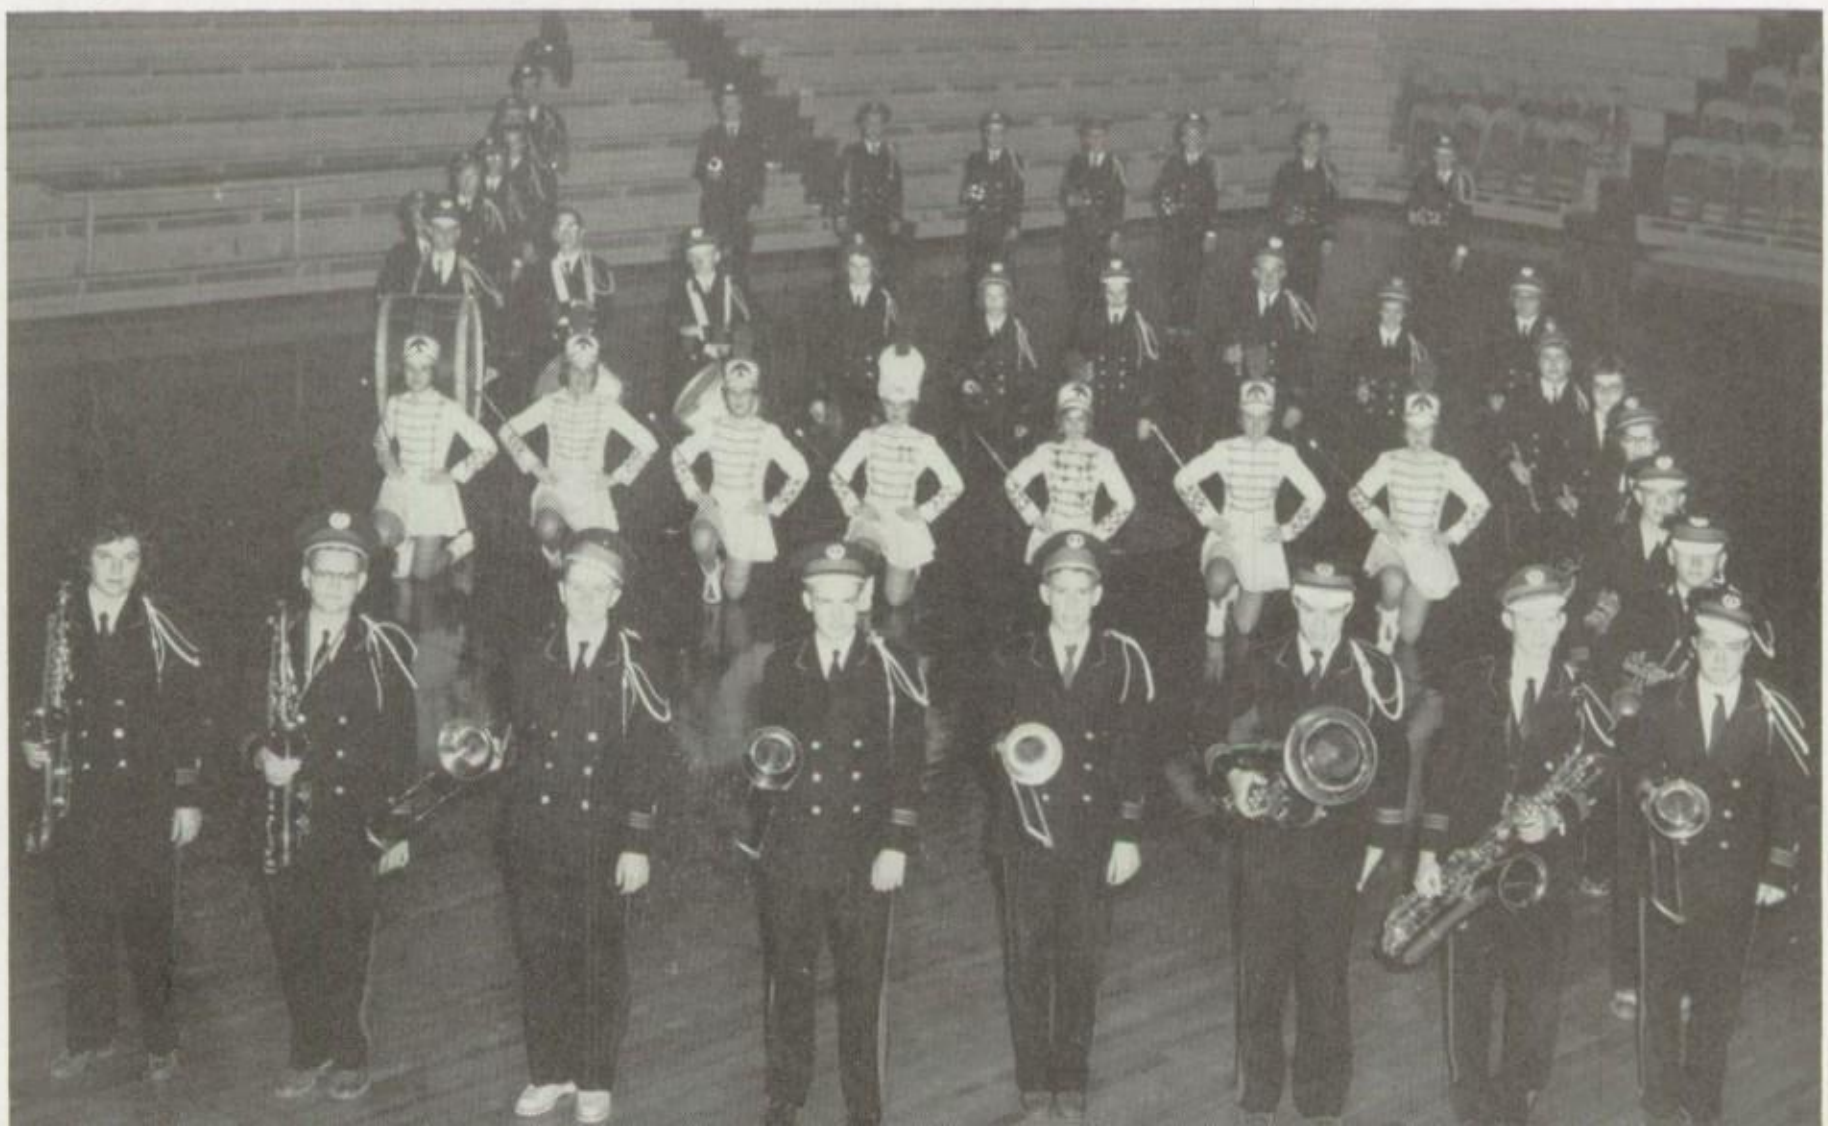
S. H. S. Choir

Our choir, under the direction of Mr. Roger Helman, has presented various programs. The choir has gained recognition by singing on radio . . . . appearing on television . . . . convocations . . . . P.-T. A. . . . . Easter Sunrise Services . . . . the Christmas program on Monument Circle.

Every day during the fifth period the band rehearsed under the leadership of Mr. Verne Jacobs, the new director. Remember how hard it was to keep your mind on a book when you heard "Mr. Sandman" or "Varsity Ramble" drifting through the halls? They always practiced until the last minute, and then came the mad scramble to put everything in its place and get to sixth period class. The product of those rehearsals was the fine music they played for our enjoyment. Remember the big formations on the football field under the lights, and the pep songs, "Fight, Fight, Fight" and "Mr. Braden," of the basketball season?

The past year the band participated in the High School Band Day at Indiana University, the Football Jamboree, County Musical Festival, Spring Festival, and Commencement.

All the members worked extremely hard on the magazine drive, and held a big contest so that they could sell an extra share of magazines because the money went for their new uniforms. The band was always on hand when needed, and provided good music for many of our big events.



Outdoor Life Club

The Outdoor Life Club was organized for those boys who are interested in hunting, fishing, trapping, and general wild-life conservation.

The favorite winter sport was the weekly fox drives under the supervision of Mr. B. G. Haviland, sponsor.

Presiding over the Outdoor Life Club were Fred Redeker, president; Elmer Van Deman, vice-president; and David Scherschel, secretary-treasurer.

Tri-Hi Y

The feminine side of Southport's Hi Y is the Tri-Hi Y, under the leadership of Miss Gladys Lovelace. The two main events of this girls' organization this year were promoting a Go-to-Church month and selling candy.

The purpose of the club is: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout school, home, and community, high standards of Christian living." The officers for this year were Sharon Cook, president; Beverly Simon, vice-president; Nancy White, secretary; Donna Willsey, treasurer; Beverly Boggs, sergeant at arms; Carol Wade, chaplain; and Joan Hufford, historian.

Mask and Gavel

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Tom Jett, the Mask and Gavel Club combines both speech and dramatic work. Any student who is enrolled in speech, salesmanship and debate, or dramatics is eligible for membership. Officers for this year were Charles Garrison, president; Barbara Burchfield, vice-president; Kent Witte, treasurer; Carolyn Langhorst, secretary; and Roselyn Speedy, program chairman.

Slave Sale

Serva . . . Serva . . . Serva going, going, gone to Paul Elsea. Slave selling was an important occasion for the Romans. Other activities for our Romans in the Advanced Latin Club included a banquet, plays, and selling cards. The Roman leaders were Paul Elsea, Consul; Jack Linson, Pro-Consul; Judy Stitzer, Quaestor; and Ann Hasz, Aedile. Mrs. Elsa Majors is the able sponsor of the club.

Beginning Latin Club

"Veni, vidi, vici. . . ." Double talk? Not really. Just a phrase well-known to the members of the Beginning Latin Club. The purpose of this organization is to promote a further interest in Latin and to provide a background for the ancient Roman society and culture. Plays and myths were read to give the members an idea of the literature of the days of yore.

Roman Banquet

On February 14th the Advanced Latin Club celebrated Valentine's Day with a Roman Banquet.

After plans were made and altered, the menu was finally decided upon . . . the food prepared . . . the decorations finished. . . . The members at last assembled for a luscious Roman banquet at tables artistically adorned with cupids, rose nut cups, red and white tapers, and cut flowers. The menu consisted of nuts, salad, spaghetti, hot Italian bread, cheese cake, and fruit punch.

Senior-Ority

Miss Blanche Penrod, the dean of girls, sponsors this very active girls' organization, which is open to all junior and senior girls. The purpose of this club is to develop the mental, physical, and spiritual character of the girls.

Annual events of the club are the senior recognition dinner, and a mother-daughter meeting, which this year was a style show.

The outgoing officers were Margaret Knight, president; Pat Young, vice-president; Jackie Caesar, secretary; and Carol Rich, treasurer.

Incoming officers are Judy Tegeler, president; Nancy White, vice-president; Phyllis Dorn, secretary; and Pat Uhls, treasurer.

F. H. A.

"Toward New Horizons" is the motto of the Future Homemakers of America.

Activities included a banquet for new members in the fall, concession stand at football games, soc-hop, square dance, and annual picnic.

One of the main purposes of the club is to purchase equipment for the Home Ec. department; this year the club purchased the much needed tote-drawers.

Officers included Joan Sutton, president; Ann Schnier, vice-president; Carol Barnes, treasurer; Yuvonne Dorn, secretary; Judy Meredith, parliamentarian; Susan Wolforth, historian; Phyllis Dorn, reporter; Beverly Hercamp, song leader. The club sponsor is Mrs. Marjorie Smith.

G. A. A.

"Are you going to the dance?" is a question asked several times during the year in relation to the dances that are sponsored by this girl's organization. Sponsoring the Sweater Swirl, Turn-About Twirl, May Dance, and two soc-hops are only a few of the many activities that keep this club's officers busy. In addition, there is the annual Talent Show given in the spring that brings to light the talents of many of our students.

The officers for this year were Nancy Brown, president; Ruth Huck, vice-president; Linda Ulrey, secretary; and Marsha Tilson, treasurer.

The new officers are Kay Fitzwater, president; Sharon Ogle, vice-president; Sandra Byrum, secretary; and Joyce Harrison, treasurer.

Sophomores of Southport

For the first time this year a club for sophomores only was organized by Mrs. Eleanor Guyer and Mrs. Lucy Hancock. The purpose of the S. O. S. (Sophomores of Southport), is to create a better social relationship among the members of the Sophomore Class. Some of their activities were a fashion show given by L. S. Ayres, a panel discussion on dating, films, and dancing. Harvey Rau was elected president, Jesse Blackwell, vice-president; and Pat Danforth, secretary-treasurer.

Spanish Club

Far away Spain has been brought to Southport by the Los Extranjeros (Spanish Club) under the leadership of Miss Gladys Lovelace. The club learns the customs and social life of the Spanish-speaking people.

The activities of the club are movies, correspondence with the Spanish people, a Spanish dinner, and guest speakers. The club is guided by Sandra Byrum, president; Peggy Kritsch, vice-president; Dorinda Kirtley, secretary; Lila Leedy, treasurer; and Joyce Harrison, librarian.

Medicii

"How long does it take to become a doctor?" "Just what are all the nurses' duties?"

Questions about their future careers were answered by guest speakers at the Medicii meetings. Officers of the future doctors' and nurses' club were Ann Hasz, president; Jack Linson, vice-president; Judy Stitzer, secretary; and Beverly Carmichael, treasurer. Miss Blanche Penrod sponsored the group.

"One Foot In Heaven"

"One Foot In Heaven" gave an idea of the complications that arise in the life of a minister's family. Eileen and Hartzell, the teen-age children, are disgusted because they are transferred from a lovely parsonage into a run-down one. Reverend Spence ran into many complications and was almost dismissed from the clergy. Hartzell has many difficulties, and when the whole family was depending on him, he was in the local jail.

The play was surprising, hilarious, and provided an evening of good entertainment. Mr. Tom Jett was sponsor and Pat Askin was student director. This year's junior class gave "State Fair."

Those Tense Moments Backstage. . . .

Here Donna Karnes is shown receiving last minute make-up touches from Junior play sponsor, Mr. Tom Jett. Donna not only appeared as Eileen in the play, but she also was business manager.

Richard Furlow, Pat Young, and Nelda Caywood take a last look at their lines before going on stage.

Stag Line . . .

Yes, nervousness reigned supreme minutes before the rising curtain at the Senior Play.

The members of the 1954 Senior Play cast had many hours of fun rehearsing for that important performance, but they also put forth many hours of hard work to make "Stag Line" a success. "Stag Line" was a comedy in three acts dealing with the hectic affairs of a family preparing for a wedding, with the dubious help of a younger daughter, Maudie.

The sponsor of the Senior Play is
MRS. ELSA S. MAJORS

Teacher's Secretaries

Under the direction of the officers and Mr. Ellis Robins, sponsor, the Phy-Chem members toured the Naval Ordinance Plant and conducted many scientific experiments during the year. Membership is open to chemistry and physics students who have a special interest in science and maintain at least a "B" average. Stanton Peale led the group as president, and was assisted by Robert Heid, vice-president, and Joan Carmichael as secretary-treasurer.

Phy-Chem Club

"Try to have that typed by fourth period," is a phrase well known to the teacher's secretaries. Their purpose is to function as an extra right hand for the teachers. They run off tests, cut stencils, and do other small tasks. Students must have completed one year of typing to become eligible to be a teacher's secretary.

"Have you read the latest?" is a well-worn phrase of the members of this club. The purpose of Page and Chapter is to develop an interest in reading the popular books and novels. Each year the club as a group tries to attend at least one stage performance or show. The highlight of activities this year was the club's going to Cincinnati for a day to see Cinerama and the zoo.

The requirements for membership are a "B" average in literature, and a book report given before the members of the club.

Officers for this year are Judy Tomlinson, president; Frances Allen, vice-president; and Sharon Ogle, secretary-treasurer.

Hi-Y

Clean speech, clean living, and clean sportsmanship is the motto of the Hi-Y. President Dave Bender led the club in their activities throughout the year. Assisting him were Stanley Shimer, vice-president; Don Scharlau, secretary; Frank Hall, treasurer; and John Howland, chaplain. Mr. Roger Helman sponsored the group.

The Business Leaders of Tomorrow

Any student with high scholastic grades in commercial subjects may become a member of the F. B. L. A. Not only does the organization teach many tricks of the trade, but it also brings the members in contact with the public through the checkroom operated during the basketball games. Mr. Elwood Miller, sponsor, has guided Pat Young, president; Jean Domroese, vice-president; Eva Morgan, secretary; Jo San Schmalfeldt, treasurer; and Winifred Martindale, reporter, in all the club functions during the year.

Future Teachers of America

"Teacher, may I be excused?"

"Now, what is five apples plus two apples?" might well be heard from any member of this club who is a cadet teacher. Tht purpose of the William Lowe Bryan Future Teachers Club is to develop an interest for the teaching profession, and to carry it out through the cadet teaching program.

Programs are selected with an eye toward giving both the teachers' and the students' view on matters.

Officers for this year were Pat Askin, president; Ellen Baird, vice-president; Marguerite Bohne, secretary; and Beverly Greenwood, treasurer. George Marshall was program chairman, with Rosalee Conover assisting.

Goes To Press . . .

Burtis Taylor, our hard working sports editor, served triple duty by also acting as advertising manager and part-time photographer. He is caught here in a typical pose of a photographer getting ready to take a picture.

Attempting to raise money for the yearbook, Latin Club members and students from all classes sold beautifully designed stationery and greeting cards to parents, friends, neighbors, and distant relatives. High salesman (and women) were Sara Repp, Donna Willsey and Jim Egenolf.

Boosting the subscription drive were members of the Anchor Staff who, sitting behind the poster-lined scorer's bench, sold the annual during the lunch hour to students and faculty members. Our book sells for only $1.75, which is below the average price for yearbooks in the state of Indiana.

Anchor . . .

Perry News . . .

The Signpost is the first big project of the beginning journalism class. Betty Maudlin was chosen editor and other beginning students helped her. Mrs. Lucy Hancock is sponsor.

Publication . . .

"Final deadline is tomorrow!" "Better proofread that!" Those were familiar cries from the editor, Burtis Taylor, and Barbara Burchfield, assistant editor. Roselyn Speedy and Winifred Martindale were page one editors; Jackie Caesar and Judi Tomlinson, page one editors; Jackie Bramlett nd Victor Wilson, page three editors; and Jim Harris, sports editor. Gene Hall was assistant sports editor and Kent Witte was columnist and business manager.

Quill and Scroll . . .

The Quill and Scroll is an international honorary journalism society. Those students who are juniors or seniors, in the upper one-third of their class, and have twenty or more printed inches of copy are eligible to join. The Quill and Scroll holds formal initiation in the spring. Officers were Jackie Caesar, president; Judi Tomlinson, vice-president; and Joyce Bettner, secretary-treasurer. New members inducted this year were Shirley Boltz, Sandra Byrum, Beverly Carmichael, Paul Elsea, Jack Ernsting, Gene Hall, Joyce Harrison, Judy Tegeler, Connie Webber, Betty Maudlin, Pat Askin, Marguerite Bohne, and Marsha Tilson.

Honors . . .

By achieving the highest score in a written examination, Yvonne Dorn was chosen the Betty Crocker Home-maker of Tomorrow. Ann Hasz was selected to represent Southport at Girls' State and Pat Askin was our D. A. R. representative and the county winner. Tom Lewelyn received first in the district and state contests for his singing. Edwin Penn won firsts in both contests with his piano solo.

Karl Sopke placed first in the city semi-final and third in the city final of the Voice of Democracy Contest.

Last September 7, Southport High School seemed a very confusing place as we trudged through the halls trying to locate our rooms. The schedule sheets needed some deciphering, but with some help from the teachers we eventually arrived at the right place at the right time.

Officers elected for our class were president, Richard Crafton; vice-president, Frank Williams; and Peggy Smith, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Eleanor Guyer was our sponsor.

A Stich In Time . . .

A scene to be long remembered is one of a boy learning domestic duties. Our Home Ec Department offers classes to the boys in cooking, sewing, and other household duties. Lucky is the girl who gets a man to help around the house.

Don't Burn Your Fingers . . .

Besides learning to protect themselves from burns, these girls learn to make some very tasty dishes for future husbands. Shown here is just one phase of food preparation — canning.

Beware The Acid Tubes . . .

Remember the odors from chemistry class? Chemistry is necessary for some careers and maybe for some college courses, but we thank our lucky stars when the days of studying sulphur are over.

What a thrill to come back to S. H. S. as upperclassmen in the fall! We are big wheels now and all the "green" sophomores look up to us. We help them locate their classrooms and remember that . . . . not too long ago we had been lost too. . .

As September and October passby, we organize our old gangs, join clubs, and choose our officers: Stanley Shimer as president, Barteld Vredeveld as vice-president, and Judy Stubbs as secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Betty Walsman guided and helped us in chosing our rings and making prom arrangements.

SENIORS

Elected from over two hundred seniors, our class leaders for this year were Bill Hohlt, president; Bob Cassady, vice-president; and Wynonia Burch, secretary-treasurer. With the able assistance of the sponsor, Mr. Ellis Robins, the seniors successfully carried out their long-to-be-remembered activities of Old Clothes Day, Senior Class Party, Senior Play, Senior-Faculty party, ordering cards and invitations, and finally Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Our Schools Are In Capable Hands . . . .

Again we welcome as our school trustee, Mr. John George, who resumes these duties after an interval of eight years, during which time Mr. Nelson Swift served as trustee.

In the above picture Mr. George and Mr. Leedy are possibly deciding upon an important issue or policy concerning our school affairs and how it shall be carried out.

To you, Mr. Swift, our outgoing trustee, we extend our deep appreciation for what you have done for our school system and wish you success in your future undertaking.

Our Leaders . . .

We think Mr. Leedy, our principal, is the best. He not only mnages the school successfully, but he finds time to be a friend to everyone.

Mr. Leedy seems to be everywhere at once; he is vitally interested in the school. We shall never forget the unexpected celebrations that he granted us for achieving, or the commendations for tasks well done.

Always ready to lend a helping hand is Mr. Kellam, who is admired by all who have come to know him. His time is spent in teaching, counseling, and acting as assistant head administrator.

Besides his other duties, he is the able sponsor of the Booster Club and the newly formed Pep Club.

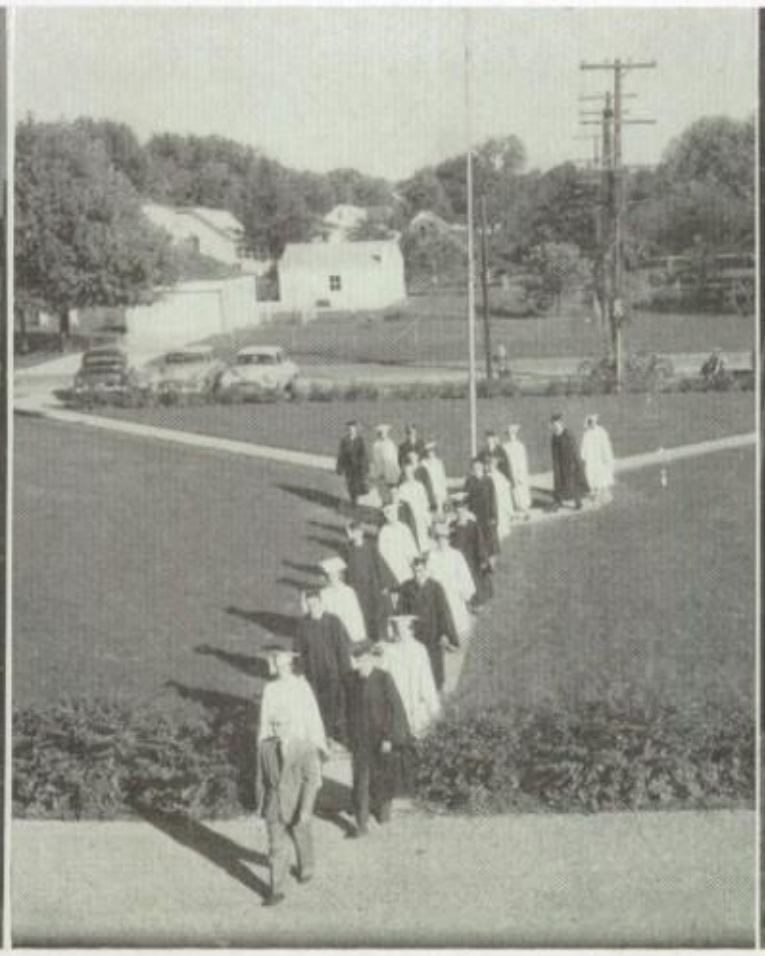
The girls find their particular advisor to be Miss Penrod, our Dean of Girls. Besides offering her assistance to the girls, she finds time to teach science classes and sponsor Senior-ority, our junior and senior girls' club, and Medicii, a club for future medical students.

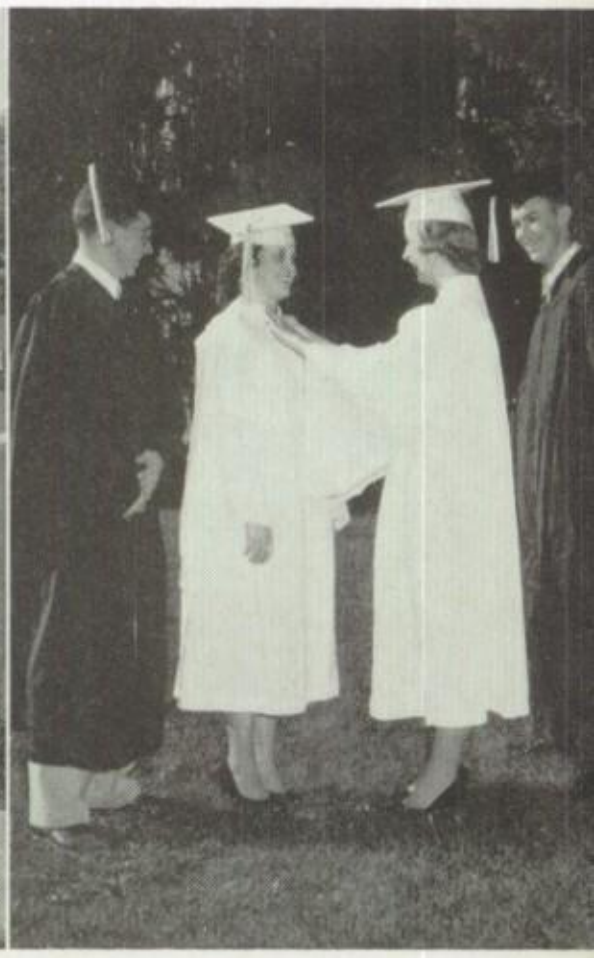
The moments of friendship, fun and informality brushed away our worries. . . . Happiness was truly timeless. We shall never forget the moments of pleasure snatched between classes in the halls . . . . the spicy aroma of the pre-holiday lunches . . . . the contagious laughter of our gang when we met under the clock. . . . Time cannot tarnish these memorable moments.

Memories That Will Never Die . . .

They Will Just Fade Away . . .

Our Most Memerable Day . . .

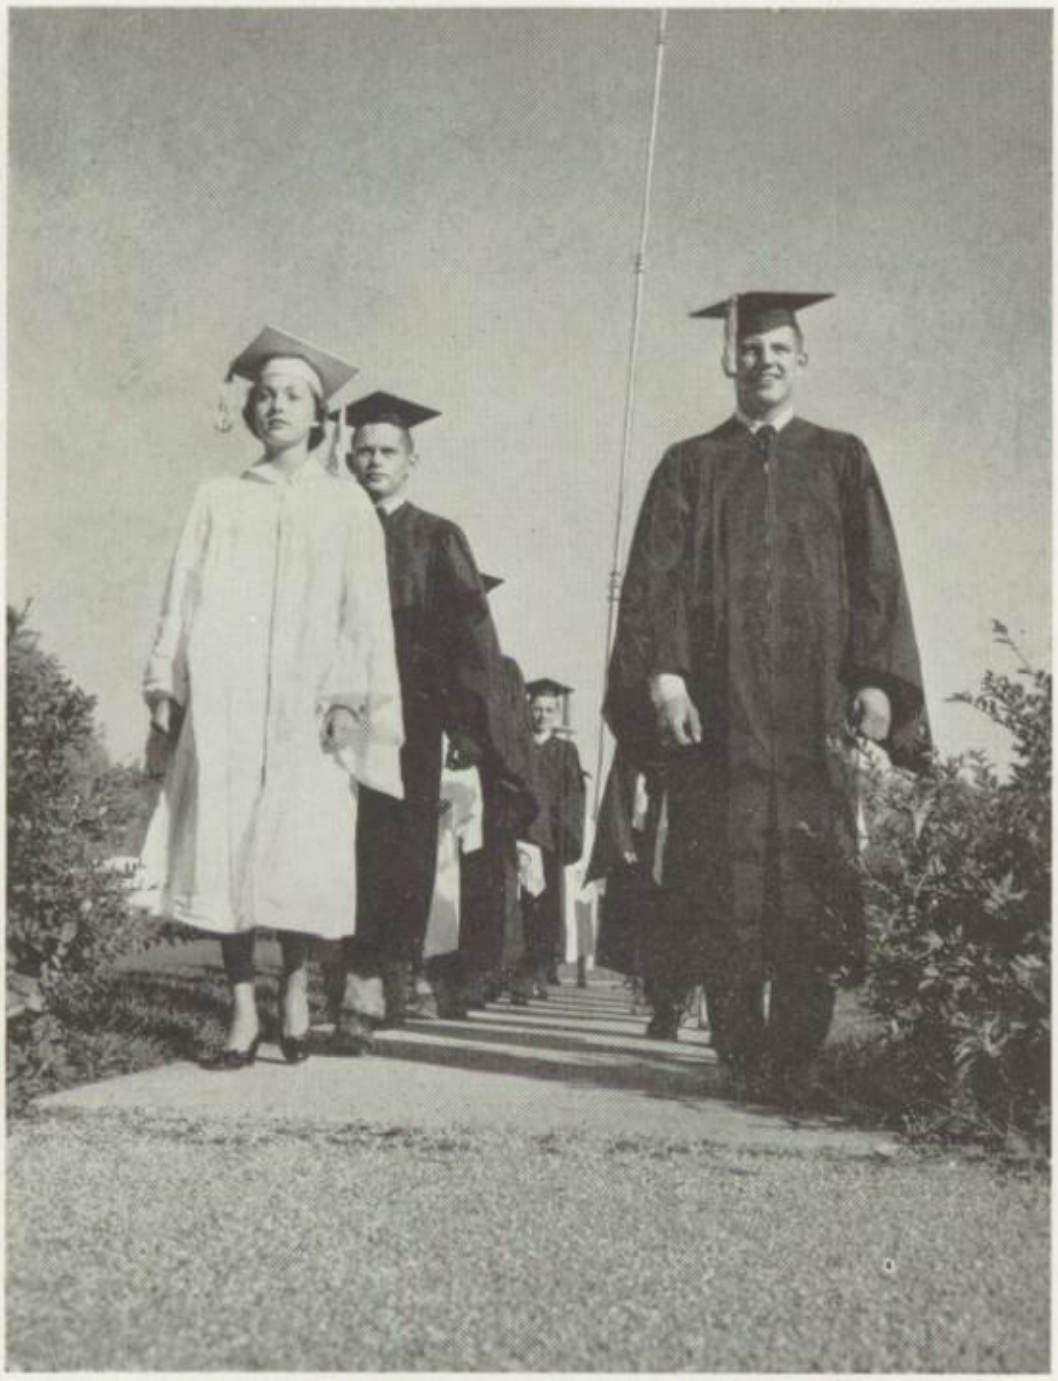




Last minute preparations before the big events. . . .

The Coveted Honor . . .

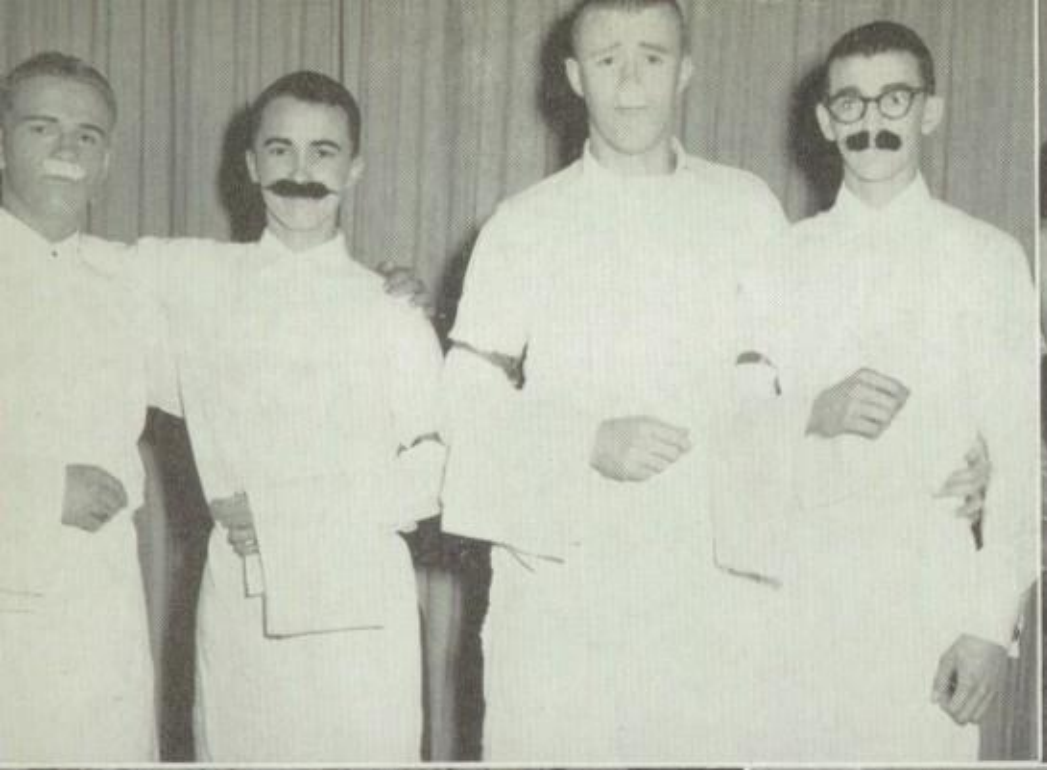
Rita Waldron achieved the highest honor awarded a senior, that of being valedictorian for her class. This honor is conferred on the basis of the grades for the previous three years, two of which she spent at Shortridge. She chose as the theme of her speech . . . "A Firm Foundation."



Last time we cross our campus as a class . . . .

Graduation Day . . .

It all sums up—to this proud hour when, in cap and gown and to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," we march upon the stage to receive our diplomas. It is only one evening in our lives, but it is the realization of all our goals, and the final award of years of work for an education. Now with diplomas in hand, we are equipped to face a bright, new future with courage and confidence, for we have grown up . . . we hope . . . and we know all the faults and affairs which have helped us to grow . . . shared experiences both sad and happy with our friends . . . tough tasks . . . but we have conquered. . . . So memories of these associations with our class mates and teachers . . . will never die . . . just fade away.



Talent Show . . .

The annual talent show is sponsored by the G. A. A. Any students possessing some particular talent or ability may try out for it. After a process of elimination, the best acts are presented before the school in a convocation and later at a P.-T. A. meeting.

Each judge, chosen from the faculty, casts a ballot for the best act. Jack Ernsting, with his rendition of "Somebody Bad Stole the Wedding Bell," walked off with the first prize of five dollars. The second prize of three dollars was won by Beverly Carmichael playing "That's Amore." A barber shop quartet consisting of Kenny Carr, Bill Miller, Tom Lewelyn, and Bob Callaway won third prize.

Mrs. Lucille Miller, sponsor of the G. A. A., and Nancy Brown, president, did much to make the show a success.

Once In A Blue Moon . . .

Yes, only once in a blue moon is there a production like the one given by the choral music department last year.

The operetta brought forth a galaxy of stars from Southport. Many hours of work were put forth by the students and the sponsor, Mr. Roger Helman, to make "Once In A Blue Moon" a success.

The choral music department of Southport presents an operetta or a musical production every year in the spring. Everyone in the choral music department is eligible to be in the presentation if he wishes to do so.

The Cast For "Once In A Blue Moon":

Carol Jackson . . . . . "Sylvia Montgomery"

Wayne Perkins . . . . . "George Taylor"

Donna Karnes . . . . . "Mrs. Montgomery"

Ellen Cox . . . . . "Moon Lady"

Ronnie Stoneburner . . . . . "Mr. Babbitt Morton"

Nancy White . . . . . "Leatrice Montgomery"

Tom Lewellyn . . . . . "Billy Maxwell"

Margaret Knight . . . . . "Betty Morton"

Driver Education

Learning To Drive In A Complex World . . .

"Harder than it looks! Have you tried it?" Just one of a variety of tests which must be passed by a student driver. In driver education a student spends part of the time in the classroom taking tests similar to the one in the picture below. These tests develop a person's ability in judging distance, his steadiness, and his vision for night driving.

What he has learned in the classroom is now applied to his driving on the road. The objective is to learn how to handle the car under any and all conditions.

The driver-education car is donated by the Kelly Motor Sales of Greenwood, Indiana. It is equipped with dual controls. Four students are taken during a lesson. One student drives while the remaining three are instructed in the rudiments of driving by Chauncey McDaniel.

The purpose of the Driver Education Course is to teach the proper driving procedures and the common courtesies of the road.

Student Council

The Student Council under the leadership of Mr. C. C. Leedy is the service organization of the school. The principal purpose of this organization is to consider and solve the special problems that arise during the year.

The officers for this year are Frank Hall, president; Fred Cipriani vice-president; and Norma Hanks, secretary-treasurer.

One member is elected from each home room on the basis of his ability to serve in the organization and to make speeches in front of his group. After attending each meeting, the home room representative reports to his home room the policies approved by the Student Council.

Some of the services the organization renders are: determining the clubs that are to give the soc-hops after the games, supporting the Community Chest Drive, and sponsoring the Bangle Pin Drive. The money from the Bangle Pin Drive is contributed to the nutrition camp at Bridgeport for the undernourished children of Marion County.

The money making project of this year was the magazine drive. The sum of $2,945 purchased new band uniforms. The magazine drive was climaxed by a school-wide celebration in the gym.

The convocation committee consisting of Frank Hall, Fred Cipriani, Norma Hanks, Dick Crafton, Stanley Shimer, Peggy Brown, and Mary Lou Gardner chose all the convocations for the ensuing year.

Bugs!

Fred Ruebeck, sophomore, proudly displays his ability as a "bug hunter."

Miss Penrod, head of the Biology Department, observes her students — Carl Dunlap, Shirley Frazier, Melvin Gaston, and Jackie Gephart—as they, too, prove their ability under her guidance.

The Prom Highlights our Spring Social Season

The Prom

The long awaited night of the big event—the Prom. In a flurry of crinoline and starched white skirts we whirled the night away. The fragrance of corsages, soft music, and low lights made the event live long after we watched the night drift slowly into day.

Memories That We Cherish Come From Moments Like These . . .

Mr. Young, our Athletic Director 1941-1954, and his wife.

The Athletes Received Their Awards At The May Dance . . .

King and Queen of The May Dance and Their Court . . .

King Neptune and his Queen were Wayne Whitaker and Wilma Ebert. Maids and men-in-waiting were Nancy Brown and Kenny Carr, Judy Stubbs and Floyd Camic. In retinue of the court were Donna Collier, Judy Tominson, Gloria Hill, David Need, Patty Uhls, Marcia Meek, Norma Fox, and Gayle Walters. Drew Miller and Nancy Mackison bore the crowns to the king and queen.

Events - - Always To Be Remembered . . .

Wtih mouths drooling, two senior boys anxiously await their chance to sample these prize winning cakes. The bakers are Joanne Sutton whose white cake took second place and Beverly Greenwood whose chocolate cake took first prize at the State Fair. Beverly applied her baking knowledge in the contest of judging and placed fourth in the State.

The Dress Parade . . .

The four girls proudly show off their accomplishments in sewing for the summer. Mildred Sturm and Joanne Sutton completed their garments in the recent Singer Sewing Contest with Joanne Sutton placing first in this district. Beverly Greenwood and Agatha Murphy completed their projects in 4-H. Beverly took Grand Champion on her five piece mix and match out-fit, and was able to represent Marion County in the State Dress Revue held in the Coliseum.

National Honor Society . . .

The four symbols . . . four flames from four candles burning brightly . . . represent the four qualities for admission in the National Honor Society — character, scholarship, leadership, and service. White represents character; gold, scholarship; purple, leadership; and red, service. The Honor Society strives to inspire these qualities in a student, and gives special recognition for them. A student wearing the symbolic pin — a burning torch—is admired by every citizen of the United States as it represents a national organization.

Officers for this year, under the leadership of Miss Helen Chandler, are Stanton Peale, president; Robert Heid, vice-president; and Pat Askin, secretary-treasurer.

A Special Day . . .

Mr. President

One Memory That Will Never Be Forgotten

Is that day last October during your visit in Indianapolis when Beverly Greenwood had the distinct privilege of presenting you with a birthday cake. Beverly was chosen for this honor because of her baking achievement in 4-H Club work and being awarded the first prize at the Indiana State Fair.

The following are copies of letters sent to Beverly by President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

October 23, 1954

Dear Beverly:

Once again my warm thanks to you for your share in the presentation to me, in Indianapolis last Friday evening, of a lovely birthday cake on behalf of the 4-H Clubs.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dwight D. Eisenhower

October 27, 1954

Dear Beverly,

I was sorry that I could not join him, but the President told me of his warm reception and of his fine meeting with you and the other 4-H Club members. I was most interested in seeing your picture with the cake that your organization presented to the President. I noted particularly, of course, that you are 1954-55 4-H Champion cake baker, and I am sure it was a very handsome cake.

It was kind indeed of you to say such nice things about the President—a am glad that you had an opportunity to meet him.

My best wishes to you, Beverly,

Mamie Doud Eisenhower
